

MIAMI DADE BAR DAVID W. DYER PROFESSIONALISM AWARD

Nominating Form and Instructions

Established in 1997, the David W. Dyer Professionalism Award is the most important award given by the Miami Dade Bar. It is awarded annually to the lawyer or judge whose conduct most closely reflects and honors the integrity, humility, compassion, and professionalism of Judge Dyer himself.

Judge David W. Dyer, a name partner in the firm of Smathers, Dyer & Thompson, and for whom the historic downtown Miami post office and current federal court is named, was nominated to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida in 1961 by President John F. Kennedy.

Judge Dyer became Chief Judge in 1962. While serving as a district judge, Judge Dyer issued a landmark decision to desegregate the restaurants which serve travelers on Florida's Turnpike. In 1966, Judge Dyer was elevated to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. There, Judge Dyer presided over several important civil rights and voting rights cases, including a ruling in 1967 to reapportion Florida on the "one-man, one-vote" principle.

Judge Dyer is a former member of the board of governors and executive committee of the Florida Bar, as well as the board of governors of the Maritime Law Association. He also served as president of the Miami Dade Bar (formerly Dade County Bar Association).

Judge Dyer's qualities and contributions were enumerated in the United States House of Representatives upon Judge Dyer's passing in 1998:

"Community leaders across South Florida are at a loss today because they have lost their leader, mentor, and role model. For many, Judge Dyer is nothing short of a hero. During a time of great national struggle, he consistently advocated and maintained that the Constitution guaranteed equality for all Americans--no matter what their race. To put it simply, he was Florida's most respected jurist.

His loss is not only a personal one, but one to the entire U.S. Judiciary. How long will it be until someone else with his compassion and understanding will grace our presence again?" - Hon. Alcee L. Hastings, Congressional Record, June 9, 1998, E1067

- d. There is a limit of 10 pages of secondary source material.
- e. Secondary source material will not be returned.

3. Presentation

All persons making nominations will have an opportunity to telephonically present a brief statement (no longer than three (3) minutes) describing why the nominee is deserving of the award. To coordinate your oral presentation please contact Bret Berlin at bret@miamidadebar.org

4. Evaluation of Nominations

In determining the winner of the David W. Dyer Professionalism Award, the Miami Dade Bar pays more attention to the quality of the information provided about the nominee than the quantity of the information provided. It is not expected that a nominee will have examples or specific experience in every area contained in the nomination form. However, any specific experience that the nominee possesses in any of the areas is more instructive than the actual number of areas.

MIAMI DADE BAR CODE OF PROFESSIONALISM AND CIVILITY

PREAMBLE

Honor and integrity are the essence and an indispensable part of our profession. It is not enough to speak of honor or profess integrity. In the end, a personal commitment to honor and integrity must be established. Professionalism may no longer be relegated to a secondary topic and/or study that is then summarily filed away. We must acknowledge the responsibilities we have to society and each other. We as attorneys pledge to practice law in an honorable manner and devote ourselves to this Code of Professionalism and Civility.

AS A PROFESSIONAL, I WILL ALWAYS:

- Remember that my responsibilities include a devotion to the public good, respect for the civil rights and sensibilities of others, and a willingness to provide pro bono or reduced fee services where appropriate.
- Exercise courtesy and civility in all communications and avoid rudeness and other acts of disrespect.
- Avoid personal criticism of another lawyer.
- Set a good example for and assist newer members of the bar.
- Consider the effect of my conduct and deportment on the image of lawyers and the system of justice.
- Counsel clients about alternative forms of dispute resolution where appropriate and available.
- Avoid non-essential litigation and non-essential pleadings in litigation.
- Communicate with opposing counsel in an effort to avoid litigation and to attempt to resolve litigation that has commenced.
- Attempt to resolve by non-coerced agreement my objections to matters contained in my opponent's pleadings and discovery requests.
- Prevent misuses of court time by verifying the availability of key participants for scheduled appearances before the court.
- Stipulate to facts in civil matters as to which there is no genuine dispute.
- Speak or write courteously and respectfully in all communications with the court or tribunal and show my respect by my attire and demeanor.
- Exercise candor with the court at all times and act with complete honesty.
- Attempt to determine compatible dates with opposing counsel before scheduling motions, meetings, and depositions.
- Avoid serving motions and pleadings in such a manner or at such a time as to harass opposing counsel or preclude an opportunity for a competent response.
- Attempt to resolve any dispute with opposing counsel prior to filing any notice or scheduling any hearing.
- Identify clearly all changes made in documents submitted to opposing counsel for review.
- Respect the commitments of others by striving to always be punctual.
- Remember that the conflict is between the clients and not the lawyers.
- Respond promptly to all requests by opposing counsel.
- Counsel clients about the value of cooperation and compromise in the resolution of disputes.
- Advise clients against pursuing litigation or other actions that are without merit or intended merely to harass, delay, or exhaust the financial resources of the opposing party.
- Reach clear agreements, preferably in writing, with clients concerning the nature of the representation and the fees to be charged.
- Keep clients advised as to the progress of their matter and communicate promptly and clearly with clients.
- Strive to achieve my client's goals expeditiously, and at a reasonable fee.
- Recognize that uncivil conduct does not advance and may compromise the rights of my clients.
