WEEKLY NEWS & UPDATES | November 7th

Suzette L. Russomanno, Esq.
MDB President

We are 55 days away from the start of a new year and I am sure many of you are feeling like there is so much left for you to do and check off your to-do list before we can officially begin the 2024 calendar year. I know the feeling!

The Miami-Dade Bar understands how demanding our profession has always been and knows that lately it has seemed even more stressful. However, know that you are not alone. We encourage members and non-members alike to schedule time for themselves to connect with others, give back to our community, and reflect on the gifts and talents with which they have been bestowed. While we should always say thank you and practice gratitude, the Thanksgiving holiday provides a strong reminder to do so. Say thank you to your colleagues, friends and family members that care for you and support you so that you may be the best version of yourself, both professionally and personally.

That is why I want to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU! Thank you to our bar staff, officers, board of directors, and committee chairs and members for helping me lead this organization and always ensuring we do what is best for our profession and community. I am especially thankful to all of our members for either joining us for the first time this year or renewing your commitment to this organization.

We cannot do this without you and we hope you know that. Your opinions and input mean everything to us and we encourage you all to let us know what you're loving and what needs improvement. There are plenty of upcoming events scheduled for us to connect and discuss your ideas, so please make sure to join us!

Let's make these next 55 days count. Let's share more laughs, grace, and kindness and less e-mails. I hope to see you all soon so we can check these items off our to-do lists together.

Yours in service and gratitude,
Suzette
